

Fact Sheet

WILLIAM FRICK & COMPANY

2600 Commerce Drive, Libertyville, IL 60048

(847-918-3700)

<http://www.fricknet.com>

Email: sales@fricknet.com

- William Frick & Company offers the largest assortment of asset identification products in the country. Products include custom tags, signs, specialty labels, utility markers, decals, advanced RFID tags with redundant laser-engraved barcodes, and other identification products used in all kinds of industries and environments
- William Frick is well known for rapid response on customized designs and printing
- Professional handling of short runs is a specialty whether customers need labels for prototypes, vehicle decals, sequential barcodes, safety signs, roadside markers, color-coded warehouse signs or other identification products
- William Frick serves businesses, contractors, engineering-design firms and distributors in markets such as: utilities, energy, oil and gas, telecommunications, OEM, transportation and warehouse/logistics
- Customers don't have to settle for off-the-shelf products but can use William Frick for customized solutions that target specific requirements
- Product lines include SmartMark™ RFID tags, FlexPost™ ground markers, AuthentiCal™ security labels and 3D-formed nameplates, decals, laser-etched tags and other identification products
- Privately held, veteran-owned, the company was established in 1975 by William Frick
- Headquartered in Libertyville, Illinois in an ISO 9001:2008 certified design and manufacturing facility, the company serves customers throughout the North America