Description

Our Zip Tie RFID Tags are meant to be easily and securely attached to withstand harsh environments. Ideal for use in service and calibration, logistics, asset tracking, and cable management. These tags are easy to permanently install and can provide an enclosed locking mechanism for visual proof of tampering.

Customize your tags with product information or serialized data to identify and track industrial containers, bags, storage and locked containers. Our Zip Tie RFID Tags are available with an IP68-rated construction for dust and water resistance and RoHS compliant. These tags are impact-resistant without degradation of performance.
